OPPOSER’S MOTION TO SUSPEND FOR SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS

Opposer, Sweet People Apparel, Inc. (“Sweet People”), by its undersigned attorneys, hereby requests that the instant Opposition be suspended for a period of sixty (60) days.

Sweet People instituted the instant proceeding on October 27, 2010. During the initial conference on December 29, 2010, the parties generally discussed the possibility of resolution and agreed to hold off on engaging in discovery until the possibility of settlement could be fully explored. Thereafter, the parties remained in contact during the January-March 2011 time period. Since that time, however, Opposer has made numerous attempts to contact counsel for Applicants to discuss scheduling and settlement issues via telephone and email to which counsel for Applicants has not responded.

Accordingly, in order to protect its client's interests, Opposer respectfully requests that the Board suspend this Opposition for a period of sixty (60) days so that Opposer can continue to try to contact Applicants to discuss the status of this proceeding and to determine whether the parties will be able to reach a settlement.

Dated: October 2, 2011

Respectfully submitted,

ARNOLD & PORTER LLP
